One Moving Story

Elsie and Don lived in a large house for a lifetime and decided to make a move. Looking at the task of sorting through decades of furnishings and accessories, they felt overwhelmed. What to keep? What to sell? How to sell?

Upstage helped identify what furniture to keep and measured it to create a floor plan for the new space. For items not being kept, a 'Transition Sale' was held. On moving day, Upstage handled everything behind the scenes so when they walked into their new space; it was like their home had been magically transferred from one place to another. It was set up with their furniture, their dishes, their bedding, their towels. Pictures on the walls, tea cups in the cupboards. Their words, "We couldn't have done it without you".

Every story is different, it's our pleasure to help with yours.
